

KAIYA GAMBLE

250-WORD BIO - June 2023

Soulful pop artist hailing from Calgary, Alberta, Kaiya Gamble has musical prowess that transcends her young age. As a singer, songwriter, and multi-instrumentalist, she weaves together captivating melodies and heartfelt lyrics that resonate deeply with listeners, creating a powerful connection that transcends boundaries.

Finding early success with her debut single "Speak Out" in 2020, Gamble achieved remarkable milestones. The song soared to the Top 3 in the 2021 International Women's Freedom Song Contest, received airplay on Alberta's premier radio stations, and earned a nomination for Pop Single of the Year at the 2021 YYC Music Awards. Additionally, she garnered recognition as the Standout Artist in Lawson Vocal Studio's esteemed national 'Becoming' contest in 2021. Her influence further expanded as she graced a Times Square Billboard and captivated readers with a compelling four-page feature in the 2021 Amazon Bestseller, 'Women of Inspiration, Women Driving Change.' Furthermore, she made history as the youngest artist ever to be showcased on HOLR Magazine's renowned 'In The Mirror' podcast in 2021.

Gamble has been captivating audiences with her profound voice and musical charisma since she was nine years old. She has already performed for thousands of people, sharing the stage with acclaimed artists such as JUNO/CCMA Award winner Brett Kissel, Neon Dreams, Lenka, and Stacey Kay. Notably, Gamble has headlined Hayley Wickenheiser's WickFest for four consecutive years, solidifying her status as a captivating performer. In 2022 & 2023, she made history as the youngest artist chosen to perform at Canadian Music Week (CMW) in Toronto.
