new single POLAROIDS out June 9

"Polaroids," is a soul-stirring song that takes listeners on an emotional journey that explores the profound pain of gradually losing someone you love. Written solely by Gamble and produced by JUNO-nominated Spencer Cheyne and Justin Kudding, the track effectively captures the raw essence of sadness through its poignant and heartfelt lyrics, and the musical arrangement serves to enhance its emotional impact.

With haunting keys skillfully played by Nelson Jackson III (Ariana Grande, Ben Platt), the track creates an atmospheric and introspective ambiance. The keys intertwine with Gamble's raw vocals, adding a haunting and melancholic touch to the overall sound.

"A few years ago, I experienced the loss of a friendship. In the echoes of my heartache, I channeled my shattered emotions into creating this song. Writing "Polaroids" helped me mourn the loss and heal the wounds left by a friendship replaced." - Kaiya
